From Father Havel...

In the Book of Deuteronomy, Moses speaks to the people and to us about the law of God. The law of God he says is not burdensome or far distant. It is written in our hearts and we have only to carry it out.

There is no doubt that in reflection we can become aware of what is right and wrong. We know how to love and care for others. We know how to speak uplifting and positive words. We know how we should act towards others yet to do the right is not always the choice that we make.

In times of quiet reflection we become aware of our sinfulness. We recognize the times when we chose not to do what we know was right. Yet for us God's mercy and forgiveness is always present to be sought and received. May we embrace the love of God in our lives and be strengthened in times of temptation to stay faithful to the Lord. ~Fr. Greg

Office Hours 8:00– 2:00 pm

Weekdays

Diocesan CCW meetings

The First meeting is Wednesday, July 11 for a quarterly board meeting. All women are invited. It will be in West Concord's St. John's. The guest speakers are from Respect Life Commission and Family and Community Commission. With the recent Supreme Court decision it is important that we learn about the impact and the Catholic response. Katie Koziolk will be attending and will take anyone who wants to go. Call 507-402-6340.

Announcement of the DCCW Convention is in the Courier and I'm trying to download the flyer for it. It is the event where we collect the items for Haiti Missions and for Rochester Medical Missionaries. It would be nice to have someone in charge of the collections for the parish. Kathy Schultz helps with the Sewing Circle's products.

Note: I'm in the process of moving to Albert Lea, retiring from the Freeborn farm, and will be changing parishes, but will stay on the diocesan CCW board for a while so will remain active in NCCW. I wish I could have helped re-generate our local chapter since we do many more things than just serve funerals. And we learn more about our faith.
