From Fr. Havel....

Joshua, son of Nun, an aide to Moses, saw Eldad and Medad prophesying in the Israelite camp and went to Moses and said, 'Moses, my Lord, stop them.' But Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets! Would that the Lord might bestow his Spirit on them all!"

In the Gospel this weekend we hear John saying to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus answered, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me."

God bestows the gifts of the Holy Spirit as God chooses. It is not for us to tell God who should receive a gift or how it should be bestowed. Jealousy is never a good thing. It sometimes keeps us from celebrating God's love for us or others because we feel that the person who received the gift was not the "most worthy" or "best prepared" to use the gift. Always be open to the gifts of God for the Lord bestows them as God wishes. ~Fr. Greg Priesthood Sunday: Priesthood Sunday, the last Sunday of September (this year, September 26) is a special day to honor our priests. This is a wonderful opportunity to show our gratitude to our priests, for all that they do for us. It's a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priest as central to the life of the Church. Pray for priests who struggle with loneliness, declining health, or the loss of mobility, that they may be comforted by the grace of the Holy Spirit. Retired priests, that they may experience God's abundant love as discover a new path. For priests who now sleep in peace of the resurrection that God will lead them gently into their eternal reward. Thank You, Fr. Greg Havel for everything you do!
