PRAYER & WORSHIP

This Sunday we celebrate Corpus Christi, in which we pay special tribute to the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. As Catholics we believe that every time the Eucharist is celebrated, the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ is made present for us. When we consume the host at Communion, we receive the nourishment that we need to live Christian lives and become the body of Christ for others. Spending time before the Blessed Sacrament in adoration is a wonderful way for us to grow in our devotion and belief in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Another way we can grow in our love for the Eucharist is by encouraging young men to consider the priesthood as a vocation, including our children and grandchildren.

The truth is without priests there is no Eucharist. I am sure that most Catholics want to always be able to have access to the Eucharist and to priests in a time of need, but at the same time are hesitant in encouraging their children to consider priesthood. If we truly trust in the providence of God to provide the Eucharist and priests for the Church, then we must be open to the possibility that God might be calling our children to become priests.

~Fr. Kurt Farrell

In the flight from Egypt, the people of Israel experienced not only their freedom from slavery, but also the freedom to establish their own identity as a people. Each year, they celebrated with a family banquet in thanksgiving for the saving action of God in their history. Despite the many obstacles that the people faced on their journey through the desert, God sustained his people with nourishment and hope. At the Last Supper, Jesus offered for us holy and living food, the sacrifice of his body and blood in the appearance of bread and wine, to sustain us on the journey to eternal life. Jesus is the "living bread that came down from heaven," (John 6:51) recalling the manna that their ancestors ate as they journeyed to the Promised Land. The Scriptures today were specifically chosen to enrich the spiritual life of the faithful, and do so most effectively when they are presented in a catechetical style that is accessible to all. Today, choir directors may find inspiration in the Scripture texts to sing a number of songs in their repertoire, but a special effort should be given this week to the singing of the Sequence, which may require a number of weeks of rehearsal beforehand. The text and music of the Sequence exults and proclaims the joy of the Church for the gift of the eucharistic mystery that all celebrate and adore.
